

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE SOUTHWESTERN ALASKA FISHERIES RESERVATION

Permit No. 58-1924.
Alitak Packing Company.
Lazy Bay Cannery.

November 5, 1923.

A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, the Alitak Packing Company, whose home office is at Seattle, Washington, is hereby authorized to operate its plant for the canning of salmon and clams in Lazy Bay, an arm of Alitak Bay, within Zone Two of the Kodiak-Afognak district of said reservation during the calendar year 1924, under the following conditions:

1. That the company may operate three traps as in the season of 1923, two in the approaches of Moser Bay and the third near Cape Alitak, and may also operate six beach seines and four gill nets wherever they may be legally used in the waters of the zone, except within Moser Bay and Olga Bay.

2. That the pack of red salmon is limited to seven thousand five hundred (7,500) cases, computed upon the basis of 48 one-pound cans per case. That when this limit is reached, the two traps at the entrance of Moser Bay shall cease operating and be dismantled. Fishing for all species of salmon other than red salmon may thereafter be prosecuted in a legal manner anywhere within Zone Two, except by the methods and at the localities above specified.

3. That the company may operate on clam beaches on the north side of Alitak Bay and on the south side of Tugidak Island, the pack of clams not to exceed five thousand (5,000) cases, computed upon the basis of 48 one-pound cans per case.

4. That the company shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.

5. That this permit expires December 31, 1924, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

(Signed) S. B. Davis
Acting Secretary of Commerce.
